He who do not acknowledge the final destination of capitalist class by abolition of it by abolition of capitalism by the working class alone by the existence conditions of capital for not losing his current status is a capitalist.

Noted, capitalism is in moribund condition by the existing condition of the capitalist class by the existence conditions of capital thus the exploiter ruling but disabled and reactionary capitalist class is suffering from fear of disappearance of it by the disappearance of capitalism thus, the capitalist class is suffering from restless anxiety, depression, insanity, madness, violence etc nonsense but in spite of that he who is thinking that he will stay in his current discriminating position by denying the code of society for change by ignoring the history of emergence of capitalism for what the masters of the slavery society and the lords of the feudal society are not existing is a capitalist.

Finally, no capitalist will exist because capitalism will not exist by the existing condition of the capitalist class and the existence conditions of capital. So, any effort of the exploiter capitalist class to exist permanently by denying the history is not only a futile exercise but also a harmful, dangerous and so reactionary action for the whole human being. Therefore, he who is moving and running for hunting money for gaining and protecting private property is running behind the mirage of best hope with a bad intention to exist as a moneyed man or powerful is a capitalist.
